

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

PARK CITY.

Father Vincent of All Hallows college spent Saturday in the Park.

Mrs. C. M. Wilson entertained ten young girls at her home Saturday afternoon for Misses Ruth Wilson and Katie Allen. Decorations were in sweet peas and nasturtiums. Hand-painted place cards were used.

J. Emmett Shields went to Salt Lake Sunday afternoon, where he will attend school at All Hallows college during the coming year.

Miss Sadie Rashad and Earl Glade, a popular young couple of Park City, were married in the temple in Salt Lake Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Glade will make their home in Park.

Mrs. Frank McEwan returned to her home in Park after an extended visit in Salt Lake with relatives and friends.

Miss Kate Allen was guest of honor at a party given by Miss Bardsley Monday evening. Miss Bardsley was assisted in entertaining by Misses Frances Shields and Jeanie Sherman.

Mrs. Cass returned home from Salt Lake Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Kate Carpenter left Saturday afternoon for Salt Lake to spend the winter.

Mrs. John Hogan has gone to Salt Lake to make her home. Mrs. Hogan is an old resident of Park City, and while her many days may find her elsewhere, they wish for her every success in her new home.

Mrs. and Mrs. Sherman entertained a few of their friends at dinner Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Nellie Thiriot and daughters, Misses Gene and Ednell, returned to their home in Salt Lake Tuesday after a pleasant visit in Park with relatives and friends.

Frank Niles left Sunday afternoon for Colorado, where he will attend school this year.

Miss Myrtle Peterson and brother Otto returned to Park Saturday from Nevada, where they have spent the summer months.

Mrs. L. E. Hubbard entertained at bridge whist Friday evening.

John Donohue and family left Sunday afternoon, where he will remain for some time.

Dr. Wilson was in Salt Lake this week. Monday afternoon Mrs. J. F. Welsh entertained the Five Hundred Card club at her home on Woodside avenue. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Young's.

T. J. Fanning returned to Salt Lake Monday.

The horses at the hospital entertained at a horseback riding party Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served at the hospital after the ride.

George Williams of Denver is visiting in Park with his aunt, Mrs. Arthur Williams.

Mrs. Fred Smith entertained a number of her friends Thursday afternoon at a euchre party. Mrs. W. D. Sutton won first prize and Miss Clara Fulton second prize.

M. D. Hurlbut returned to Salt Lake Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Westfield spent a few days in Salt Lake the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark and family were in Salt Lake the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Towney went to Salt Lake Sunday on an extended visit.

Mrs. McLaughlin and son, Eddie, were passengers to Salt Lake Sunday afternoon. Mrs. McLaughlin visited for a few days in the city and Eddie went to enter school at All Hallows college.

Joe McLaughlin spent a few days in the city this week.

SPANISH FORK.

George Bowen came down from Garland Wednesday for a ten days' visit.

E. B. Sorley, of Tigerton, Wis., formerly of this place, is visiting here for a few days.

Mrs. Julia Annison of Salt Lake, formerly Miss Minnie Bradford, is visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Pleasant Bradford.

Chett Leavitt and wife will leave for Rhyolite, Nev., this week, to be gone for the winter.

Thomas Frederick Higginson, a wealthy rancher from near Butte, Mont., is in our city visiting his aged mother and other relatives. Mr. Higginson left Spanish Fork nineteen years ago.

On Tuesday nearly all of the Swenson family met at the home of Mrs. Priscilla Swenson. The afternoon was spent doing needle work, and at 4 o'clock the sat down to a table to partake of the good things of the earth. The evening was spent in music, singing and recitations.

Dr. Hagan and his mother from Denver arrived here Tuesday. Mrs. Hagan expects to spend a few weeks here with her son.

The Self Culture club began its year's work with a literary and musical entertainment at the home of Mrs. John Drahtwaite, Wednesday evening. A number of their friends, about forty-six, were invited to participate. After the musical selection by the company a brief history of the club, which has been in existence for over eight years, was given by its president, Anna Gardner, who then introduced Miss Ann Nebeker of the W. of W., who gave an excellent recital of Shakespeare's great tragedy, "Othello." Several musical selections were rendered by Messrs. Ed Williams, Lars Nielson, Taylor Thurber, J. P. Creer and the Misses Phoebe Brown and Grace Brookbank with Miss Fern Lewis as accompanist.

These selections were interspersed with recitations by Mame Markham, Emeline Dubois and Wells Robertson. After dainty refreshments and a parting song, the club adjourned, feeling that the evening had been all too short, and that it was one of untold interest and value to literary aspirants.

MANTI.

Mr. and Mrs. Swen O. Nielsen of Fairview were Manti visitors this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hall.

Peter Oldroyd of Fountain Green was a Manti visitor this week.

Perry Voohees left this week for Los Angeles to continue his studies in dentistry.

Mrs. Prevener and daughter May left for their home in California after spending several months in Manti as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Voohees.

Theodore Martin of this city left last week for New York, where he will attend college the present school year.

Elmer Madsen and Miss Jessie Crawford visited relatives and friends in Emery county this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Christensen of Ephraim were Manti visitors this week.

Elmer Anderson of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Anderson, left a few days since for Chicago, where he will enter a school of law.

Miss Myrtle Harrison left Sunday last for Lehi, where she will make her home for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Parry, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sperry of this city were in Wales Friday last to attend the eightieth anniversary of Nathaniel Bingham, father of Mrs. Parry and Mrs. Sperry.

Mrs. Ella Cotton, after spending a few days in Manti with relatives, left Sunday for her home in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. John Thompson of Sterling visited relatives and friends in the Temple City Sunday last.

Mrs. Sarah Nielsen left Sunday last for Sevier county to visit relatives for a few days.

Wallace Lowry left Sunday last for Price after spending a few days in Manti visiting with his mother and other relatives.

Mrs. George S. Rust returned this week from Richfield, where she visited relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Hopt of Nebraska left for their home Sunday after spending a few days with relatives in Manti.

Miss Josephine Anderson of Glenwood was in Manti last week on a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ramboe of a field were Manti visitors during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Eliason of Logan were this week guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Clark. They will leave next week for Chicago, where Mr. Eliason will continue his studies of medicine in the Northwestern college.

A Kensington was given by Mrs. Louis C. Kjar at her home last week to a number of her friends. Refreshments were served.

Miss Rosalia Buehler, one of the popular young ladies of the Temple City, will be married Wednesday next at the Manti temple to Henry Strickland, a prosperous young man of Hooper, at which place the young people will be at home to their friends after next week. Miss Buehler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Buehler of this city and has always been esteemed most highly by her many friends.

Mrs. Clarence Fritchett of Fairview is in Manti visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Thornton.

Frank L. Capen of Lynn Junction was a business visitor here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelsch of Mt. Pleasant were Manti visitors Wednesday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Close.

Mr. and Mrs. John Colby of Sigurd were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lazenby this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Michaelson of Centerfield spent the week in Manti visiting friends.

Alexander Justesen of Spring City was a Manti visitor this week.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Davenport Wednesday last week.

Ann Elmer and Minerva Mickelson will leave the coming week for Provo, where they will attend school.

The baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Reid.

Misses Bradley and Miss Lillian Ludvigsen, both of Sterling, were married Wednesday last. A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Ludvigsen. They will make their home in Mammoth, where Mr. Bradley is engaged in business.

Mrs. Christine Shultz of Ephraim spent Tuesday last in Manti visiting friends.

Mrs. Henry Hasler of Mt. Pleasant visited relatives here this week.

Mrs. Sarah F. Alfred of Sunnyside was a temple visitor during the week.

Misses Rose and Emily Christensen of Inverary, Sevier county, were temple visitors this week.

Miss Blanche Poulsen of Fairview spent the week in the visiting relative.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sargent of Panquitch were Manti visitors this week.

MURRAY.

With the opening of the Trocadero Saturday evening the younger set were given an enjoyable treat. Held's band was in attendance, which insured the best of music, and the cool evenings so near, the affair was the social event of the week.

Miss Mabel Miller left Monday evening for California, where she goes to spend the winter.

Richard Winder and family returned the early part of the week from a two months' outing trip spent in southern Idaho.

The wedding of Miss E. Morrissey and E. Mossberg takes place Monday at the home of the bride's parents.

Annan Hyde, who has been spending a short time at Springville, returned the early part of the week.

Louis Perry of Tooele, who has been spending the past week in Murray visiting, returned to his home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Albert Shaw have returned from a two weeks' outing in Idaho.

Roy Cahoon leaves Monday evening for Logan, where he goes to attend school at the A. C. university.

Miss Laura Perry of Salt Lake spent Sunday in this city the guest of her cousin, Miss Meri Miller.

Harry H. Madsen of this place entertained sixteen of his friends at Salt Lake Monday evening. The affair was in honor of his sister, Miss Florence Madsen, and Oliver E. Meredith, who were married Wednesday. Decorations were in pink and white.

Miss Bertha Snodgrass, who has just recently returned from a trip of one year abroad, was a Murray visitor Thursday.

Mrs. George Hyde has returned to her home in Springville, after a visit of some time with relatives in this city.

Richard Hansen left Monday for a two weeks' business trip to Eureka and Mammoth.

Mrs. F. J. Watson is home after a stay of several weeks with her parents at Butte, N. Y.

Arthur Hayes has returned from a trip to Yellowstone National park.

Miss Edna Morrissey spent Sunday at Bingham with friends.

Patrick Friel, who has been spending the past week in this city visiting with his family, returned to Bingham Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones, who have spent the past year abroad, and who returned only recently, left Thursday for Seattle to make their home.

Miss Blanche Hyde returned to her home in Springville the latter part of the week.

Mrs. W. D. Leonard entertained informally for his guests from the east last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Lucile Gilmer of Park City is spending this week in town, visiting with her old schoolmate, Miss Lillian Gray.

Vincent Bennion is expected home shortly from Wyoming, where he has been spending the summer.

A wedding of interest to Murray people took place Thursday when Miss Adelaide Sevel became the bride of Samuel Cook, both of this place. They were married at the home of the bride's parents.

A wedding ceremony was carried out in the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends. A reception for about fifty friends followed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, who has been spending the past few months at Scranton visiting with relatives, is expected home shortly.

Walter Scott has returned to his home in Marysville after a visit of three weeks.

Bishop U. G. Miller, who has been under the doctor's care for the past two weeks, is recovering slowly.

Miss Jennie Stratton was a visitor this week.

BINGHAM.

Mrs. Joseph Cook of Provo has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. Miller, during the week.

Mrs. Ade Heaton returned to Bingham Sunday morning for a few days' stay. Miss Mona reached camp Saturday. Mrs. Heaton is not yet settled in her new home in Salt Lake.

Thomas S. Glasson of Bingham and Miss Eliza A. Williams of Salt Lake were married last week.

Mrs. A. Peterson of Highland Bay entertained at her home Monday evening the Bingham ward choir. The occasion was in compliance to her son Alvino, who leaves Monday next for Provo, where he will attend the university. The home was then attractive in decorations of carnations, ferns and asters, and an entertaining program of several musical selections was given.

Mrs. Annie McKean is among the new arrivals in camp. Miss McKean is to teach in the public schools here. She comes from Ohio.

The Baker of Copperton is to remove to the city for the winter for the purpose of placing her children in school.

Miss Cowburn is out from the city for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dack.

Mrs. George A. Baker, who has been visiting in Provo, has returned to the city, is now the guest of her other daughter, Mrs. H. W. Hunt, and will remain in camp for a number of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kautzman celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary on Saturday last.

Miss Elizabeth Booth has left to attend the Brigham Young university at Provo. Before her departure her friends tendered her a complimentary dance at the ward meeting house.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill are home after a visit of several days in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Edward Davis and children went to Zion the last of the week.

Miss Nellie McEvoy is home from a summer vacation spent in Iowa.

Mrs. Charles Brink is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Coney.

The Bingham Whist club is arranging an entertainment for an early autumn date.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. James announce the arrival of a baby boy at their home Monday.

Hugh McGuire will move to Park City next week, where he has taken a position with one of the mining companies.

Miss Abbie Ballard of Draper has been the guest of her brother, G. Ballard, for the past few days.

Miss Edith Klopstein is in Ogden for the winter, where she has been engaged as teacher in the public schools.

Mrs. Carl Bartholomew returned to camp the first of the week, after several days' stay in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Painter are the guests of Mrs. W. D. Clays.

Miss Emma McKilligan came in Saturday from Marysville, Mont., where she has been visiting relatives for the summer months.

Mrs. Charles Simms of Kansas, who is visiting Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle, will spend next week with Mrs. W. H. Dunn in Bingham.

Miss Kimball is visiting her sister, Mrs. Zwickley of Highland Bay.

Mrs. Bennett of Copperton was surprised at her home Tuesday evening by many friends and was the recipient of a handsome rocking chair, presented by her hostess, Mrs. A. most delightful evening was enjoyed by about twenty.

Mrs. Joseph Coko has returned to her home in Provo, after a few days' visit in camp, the guest of Mrs. E. Miller and Mrs. Albert Holsten.

The Relief society conference held at the ward meeting house last Thursday evening was attended by over thirty members. President Golf and Mrs. Hanson of Sandy were the speakers of the afternoon. At the close of the session ice cream and cake were served.

NEPHI.

The marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Shimmins of Nephi to William Witbeck of Vernal took place in the Manti temple Tuesday. Both are well and popularly known here.

The marriage of Miss Florence Haynes and LeRoy Pass, both of Nephi, was announced to take place on the 18th inst. at Ogden.

Mrs. George W. Hickman of Eureka are visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Elmo Moore.

E. D. Sorenson of Manti spent the first part of the week here.

Miss Hortense Hyde has gone to Salt Lake to attend the U. of U. of the coming year.

The Y. L. M. I. A. concert Tuesday evening was an excellent entertainment.

John A. Alder of Manti is here for the coming school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Burton went to Eureka Friday.

Miss Mabel Miller left Monday evening for California, where she goes to spend the winter.

Henry Adams was in Manti the first of the week.

County Attorney T. L. Foote returned Thursday from a trip to Eureka.

Lorin Whitmore has gone to Salt Lake to attend the University of Utah.

Mrs. Estella Caldwell of Salt Lake City visited here Sunday.

Fred Anathens of Eureka is here for the school year.

Enoch Burton was up from Pangulth for a few days this week.

Pearl and Stephen Allen have gone to Provo to attend the B. Y. U.

Mrs. Hughes of Salt Lake was down the first of the week the guest of Mrs. Enoch Burton.

Miss Helen Grace will leave today for the B. Y. U. to resume her musical studies.

Charles Strong of Ephraim visited friends here this week.

William Brown of Manti was in Nephi Wednesday.

Mrs. Rose Patten and family have gone to Provo to live.

The Saltair orchestra gave a very enjoyable ball here Wednesday evening.

Thomas Coulter of Fish Springs was here Thursday.

Charles Batchelor of Bear River is visiting relatives and friends here this week.

John, Myrtle and Arthur Booth will attend the B. Y. U. of the coming school year.

LEHI.

German E. Elsworth, president of the northern states mission, is spending a few days with relatives in Lehi.

Miss Anna Lister has accepted a position with the public schools in Mercer, N. Y.

John Russon, after an absence of two years spent in Wisconsin as a Mormon missionary, is home again.

Tuesday evening the Y. L. M. I. A. of the First ward held a social, at which refreshments were served. A reorganization was effected, with the following officers: President, Ella Davis, with Rose Peterson and Jaley Southwick as counselors.

Dr. and Mrs. Holbrook spent several days this week with relatives in Bountiful.

Walter Parks went to Salt Lake City Friday for several days.

Friday evening, at the Commercial club rooms, the district school teachers were entertained by the trustees. A program was rendered and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Slade returned Thursday from a two weeks' visit to California, spent in San Francisco and Sacramento.

Mrs. J. A. Thomas has returned from a month's visit with relatives in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Southworth have gone to New York for a ten days' visit.

The wedding of Clarence Yates and Ella Allred will take place next Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple. A reception will be tendered the following evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Allred.

Nate Rockhill and C. H. Brown left this week for a two weeks' vacation in the Strawberry valley.

Tuesday evening the Second ward Y. L. M. I. A. reorganized with Mrs. Lena Holbrook president; Lena Worlton and Edna Hackett, counselors; Max Campbell, secretary, and Clara Bone, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Allred Broomhead of Garland are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Hasler.

Mrs. E. M. Jensen of Oakley has been spending the past week the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Peterson.

John F. Cutler left Monday for a mission to England.

Mayor Bransford and son, Councilman Hobday and Water Commissioner Mathews of Salt Lake City formed an auto party, who visited Lehi last Wednesday.

John F. Meakin of Salt Lake City is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Alma Conor, for a few days.

Senator John Y. Smith returned Tuesday from a week's visit to California.

Gay Whipple left this week for a few months' prospecting tour in Arizona.

Miss Jennie Gostes of the Racker Mercantile company is spending a two weeks' vacation visiting relatives in Ogden.

Ray Allred will leave next week for a mission to the northern states.

Mrs. Joste Johnson of Provo is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Brown.

Mrs. Annie Gibb returned to her home in Raymond, Canada, this week, after a two months' visit with relatives in Lehi.

RICHFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reed of Salt Lake are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Late Morrison.

Mrs. H. N. Hayes visited in Salina last Wednesday with relatives.

Charles Lammarford went to Salt Lake Thursday.

Mrs. J. T. Chidester went to Ogden Sunday on a visit to her daughter.

Miss Hazel Wilkinson went to Salt Lake Tuesday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Gideon Sanders.

Miss Zina Johnson went to Provo last Thursday to take charge of the general hospital at that place.

Miss Eva Draper arrived from Aurora Monday on a visit to relatives.

Miss Minnie Farnsworth arrived from Beaver Sunday and is visiting with relatives here.

Willie Nebeker left for Provo Thursday to attend school this winter.

Dr. Dilworth Woolley went to Manti Friday to visit with her parents.

Mrs. G. H. Herbert went to Beaver Monday on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Campbell.

J. J. Woodring made a trip to Salt Lake and back during the week.

George Hansen went to Ephraim Tuesday on a visit to relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Andelin departed Sunday for their trip to Europe, where with her mother, Mrs. Ole Peterson. Her brother, Vernon, accompanied her home and will remain there during the winter.

Mrs. G. H. Crosby started Tuesday on her return to her home in Arizona. She will stop a few days in Salt Lake to be present at the wedding of her brother, Clarence Miller.

Mrs. A. W. Nielson returned to Salt Lake last week, after visiting with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nielson.

Thomas Durham, George Durham, Sarah Durham and Mrs. Amy Oortan arrived from Parowan this week and have been visiting with the family of Dr. J. F. McGregor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hanway came down from Salt Lake Tuesday and spent a couple of days in Richfield visiting.

J. W. Phillips of Salina and Miss Mary Nielson of Mt. Pleasant obtained a marriage license Wednesday and were married by Rev. J. H. Metcalf. Mr. Phillips is a well known citizen of this county, having served as representative and other county offices. The bride is well known nearly all her life. They departed for Long Beach, Cal., Thursday, where they will make their home.

LOGAN.

A charming wedding reception occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Eliason on Wednesday, when their daughter, Elva, became the bride of Clyde Squires, a Utah boy, who is now winning his way in the nation's metropolis as an illustrator. The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion with autumn blossoms. The guests consisted of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few invited friends. There was a sumptuous spread and the usual social features. The wedding gifts were beautiful. Indeed, Mr. and Mrs. Squires left on Saturday for New York City, where they will make their home.

The Sabbath school workers of this section gave a surprise social on Monday evening in honor of Superintendent D. C. Jensen. A delightful evening was spent in general chat over Sunday school work, with games, music, etc. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. H. E. Crockett was tendered a surprise reception on Friday. A host of her friends attended the affair and a delightful afternoon was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Nielsen have returned from Salt Lake City, where they spent a week visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Thompson are visiting friends in Omaha.

Mrs. Fred Eldridge of Salt Lake City returned to her home this week after spending a few days here as the guest of Mrs. J. Z. Stewart.

Mrs. William Sanders of Salt Lake City is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Napper of Salt Lake City were the guests of Mrs. Mary Napper this week.

Mrs. Helen M. Stark returned to her home in Brigham this week after a pleasant visit with Logan relatives.

Mrs. M. E. Peterson returned from Salt Lake City on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Bischoff, Jr., of Teton, Idaho, is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

F. K. Nebeker is enjoying an outing in the Bear Lake country.

Professor W. W. McLaughlin returned Tuesday from Sacramento and San Francisco.

A party composed of Joel Priest, Captain Burdige, C. A. Quigley and J. A. Foley, all of Salt Lake, was in Logan the first of the week. The gentlemen came upon a shooting trip, and spent most of the time on the west side.

W. L. McKenzie and daughter, Maud, are here from Kansas City on a visit to friends. They will be here ten days.

Mrs. Ella Squires of Salt Lake City spent several days of this week in Logan, having come up to attend the wedding of her son, Clyde.

A china dinner in honor of Miss Hattie Montrose was given on Friday evening.

Miss Ella Nelson has returned from a two weeks' outing in Bear Lake county, Idaho.

Mrs. M. A. Sears of Salt Lake City is the guest of Mrs. M. Needham.

P. C. Nelson went to Cooke City, Mont., the first of the week to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Everton visited friends in Morgan this week.

Professor and Mrs. J. A. Rexell reached home on Sunday from Chicago, where they spent the summer vacation.

Mrs. J. L. Hendrickson visited relatives in Provo this week.

D. A. Smith of Bountiful was with Logan friends the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Johnson entertained at dinner on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Westlake of Omaha, who is visiting with them.

Quaker Maid Rye

Three Gold Medals

A POINT OF ETIQUETTE
When a gentleman says: "What will you have?" It is good form to reply:

Quaker Maid Rye
"The Whisker with a Reputation"

For sale at all First-Class Bars, Cakes and Drug-Stores

S. HIRSCH & CO.

KANSAS CITY, MO.

PIANOS.

High grade and medium, easy payments; one price only; cash reductions; estimates on piano repairing without cost; we do renting and tuning.

NEW YORK & WESTERN PIANO COMPANY.

No. 62 Market St., near Postoffice.

I'm Ready For Business.

ARE YOU?

MY FALL STOCK OF MEN'S CLOTHES Are in Place and Await Your Personal Inspection.

THIS IS THE 15TH OF SEPTEMBER, and the time for you to prepare for winter has arrived

These two statements should suggest to your mind a visit to my store. A visit does not always mean a purchase, but I am glad to have you come in and look at the quality of the goods, the variety of styles and the prices. There will be no effort made on the part of clerks to have you buy against your will. You will be shown the goods in a way which will leave to your own judgment the decision as to whether or not they are what you want.

MY SUITS AND OVERCOATS ARE PRICED THIS YEAR at $15.00 AND UP TO $50.00

I am agent in Salt Lake for Youman $5 Hats. They are hats that can be worn on any occasion, with credit to yourself and to me. Jumping from hats to Shoes, I carry Stacy Adams and Crawford Shoes, two of the best brands known. The former sell for $5 and $6. Crawford for $3.50, $4 and $5.

Take it all in all, I am pretty well satisfied with the various things which go to complete my stock, and would like to show you why. May I have the opportunity?

210 SOUTH MAIN STREET.
IT PAYS ME TO SELL GOOD CLOTHES.